

M.Y.
Moulay Yacoubi

Moroccan-born, Paris-raised and New York-based celebrity stylist Moulay Yacoubi understands that all haircuts are not created equal. The stylist must read each person's unique beauty, listen to the client's desires and work with them, ultimately creating the perfect style. Moulay believes that in order to love your hair, you must truly feel it working for you, transforming you into your best self.

Classic, soft, modern or edgy, Moulay has mastered the technique of personal "style." During his 20 years experience, Moulay has learned from the most well-known, iconic names in the business. Moulay offers his complete stylistic range, from couture cuts, tailored styles, and sophisticated special events styling to extensions and creative looks.

Moulay started his career in Paris, working the fashion shows with the top editorial stylists of the time. He studied under Vidal Sassoon, perfecting his distinctive modern-classic technique. He continued by learning the famed dry-cutting technique from master-stylist John Sahag, and razor cutting under British-great Michael Gordon, founder of Bumble & Bumble. Moulay has drawn from the teachings of all three style legends, creating his signature, avant-garde technique along the way, tailored to each client's texture and style. The result is head-turning, unique styles that every woman covets.

Moulay's work has graced the covers and pages of established international magazines and styled leading celebrities including Jennifer Aniston, Gisele Bundchen, Gwyneth Paltrow, Naomi Campbell, Kate Moss, Sigourney Weaver, Helena Christensen, Uma Thurman, Brooklyn Decker and more. Moulay has been featured as leading stylist on CBS, FOX, E! News and appeared as a guest judge of the 2010 season of "Shear Genius" on Bravo!

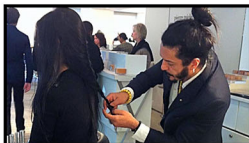

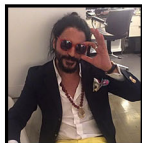

Moulay is brilliant at cutting and styling. He succeeds at making you look like a sexier, more stylish version of yourself. I live in both Manhattan and London and have went to many of the best salons, but I keep coming back to Moulay because he is quite simply the best. He attended my wedding in Italy in part because I did not want anyone else doing my hair on my big day. I re-run to him for all my trims and styling because everytime I try someone new they just don't measure up. Moulay will keep length on your hair, while still transforming how it falls and moves.

He is also excellent at mens hair as it is the best haircut my husband has had - it magically made his hair look fuller and his face slimmer. He also made my little son look cuter. Moulay is at the pinnacle of his field. My only advice is definitely go see him and see for yourself. Oh and he's cool to hang out with....

SAMAR, LONDON

Moulay has a passion for hair and beauty (and life). I love how he creates great art with hair every day - I always leave feeling amazing. I cannot recommend his styling enough - run, don't walk to this exceptional hair master.
